2. Are you a resident of the District? YES NO If yes, # of yrs: 63
3. Are you at least 18 years of age? YES NO

YOUR ANSWER MUST BE "YES" TO ALL 3 QUESTIONS TO BE ELIGIBLE.

PLEASE ANSWER THE FOLLOWING QUESTIONS: (additional paper may be used)

1. Why are you interested in serving on the Oversight Committee?

After serving 35+ years with Public Safety as Firefighter I appreciate the services of the FRRPD to the community and I understand Efficient and effective delivery of local government.

2. What skills and abilities would you bring to the Oversight Committee?

I have served as elected as City Councilman for 8 years and understand the funding of local government and the needs of local government in delivering services. Also serving as a department head (Fire Chief) I am aware of the valuable needs of process and procedure to accomplish the goals of the District.

3. What role should the Oversight Committee play in governance of Benefit Assessment District proceeds?

The role is to stay within the elected text of the measure and to ensure expenditures are in accordance of the intent of the approved measure.

4. Are the park and recreation needs of the community currently being met by the District? What areas do you feel need the most improvement?

It's my belief the District is providing a valuable Benefit to the community. There is always room for improvements that are reasonable and to benefit of all, but are decisions of the Board.

5. In your opinion, how can Benefit Assessment proceeds best be utilized to improve the service level of the District?

I understand the proceeds are best utilized in the category of maintenance, operation of facilities and repair of facilities as mentioned in the approved measure.

The consideration of expenditures is for the Board.

I would mention the Oversight committee function is to ensure those expenditures are within the intent of the Measure.

6. Additional comments:

I look forward to assisting the District in the role of Oversight Committee member and Thank the District Board for considering this application.
